

MEMORANDUM

TO: College Senate

Date: June 12, 2018

FROM: Ed Book, Chief of Police

SUBJECT: Police Department – Added Services

On May 31st, the Santa Fe College Police Department held a ribbon cutting at its renovated complex completing a several year process. Thank you all for supporting this effort.

As a result of additional space & capabilities, the PD now has new free 24/7 services for our College community.

- Emergency Food Bank

Non-perishables available to the hungry / food insecure.

Partner: Bread of the Mighty Food Bank.

- Emergency Clothing Reserve

For persons with torn or damaged clothing or in need of an item to wear for any reason.

Partner: Santa Fe ShareWear.

- “Safe Space” Refuge

Runaways or youth in crisis can be connected to resources.

Partner: CDS Behavioral Services & the Interface Youth Shelter.

- Safe Trade Zone

Lobby &/or PD parking lot can be used when meeting to buy or sell on Craigslist or other online marketplaces. Offers a place of safety to conduct the transaction & reduces the chance of being victimized or scammed.

Reminder: Services already provided include safety escorts, lost & found, parking decals, RAD training, car jumper boxes, key issuance, locks/unlocks, & directions & maps amongst other things.
